lol wright □□

I have not stressed this enough, but just to make it clear

My LEAST favorite NPC has to be Wright (as pictured on the left)

Reasons I hate him are...

1) He has ugly pants - why do they look like they're filled with air!?!?

2) He is a nerd

3) He is annoying

4) He is ugly

5) His ears are dumb

6) He is not hot

7) And many more reasons I'm too lazy to think of

Anyways, I thought I would mention it because it then brings me to this screenshot I took during a PSO2 story quest

I love this picture since it looks like Aki and whatever the other guy's name was (too lazy too look it up) have forgotten about Wright, and make Wright look like the outcast he is. It's really funny how even the game characters forget he exists, and do not entertain his presence

On the other hand though I kinda hate this screenshot because I can relate to Wright... □□
