DOS2 Squad!

So for a while, me my dad, and my sister all played "Divinity Original Sin 2". After a while we got bored of it though because it was really long and grindy.

So I drew our characters!

To the very left, there is my character Lisa (I know, very original name). Lisa is a elf, scholar, and she can speak to animals! She is also a summoner!

Next is my sisters character, Stabby Chick. Stabby Chick is a crazy lady who loves daggers, and murder. She also likes ducks, and is slowly planning Ifan's murder....

Next to her is Ifan Ben Mezd. Ifan is a story based character, not a original one like Lisa and Stabby Chick. He has a doggo! (okay fine its a wolf).

Lastly is Baby. Baby is a dwarf, and also captain of the team. Baby is like the reasonable and not dumb one. He is also played by my dad.
