

Doodle Dump #2

Here is page 2 of my doodle dumps!

I have a variation of things on this page!

First of all in the left corner there is a dog.

After the dog is a oggie. "What the ham is a oggie?" you may ask? Well, Oggies are little 3d printed doods my dad came up with. He used to make them out of play-dough when he was younger, and then as a daddy dood he 3d printed them with me, his daughter (and my sister, also his daughter lol)

After that whole explanation, I lastly drew Zhongli and Childe from Genshin Impact! My younger sister loves Genshin Impact, with Zhongli being her favorite character, so I drew him in honor of her. And then I drew Childe since he is "Zhongli's Wallet" ☹️
