Doodle Dump #3

We have a variety of things on this page!

In the top left corner, there is a elf girl with pigtails. Nothing else really to say.

In the top right corner, there is a dog. It is a good dog.

In the bottom corner, there is Sevagoth. Sevagoth is one of my favorite frames, and this has to be one of my favorite sketches. Sevagoth was also going to have legs, but I gave up after like 5 minutes of back and forth attempts and erasing. I'm also kinda emotionally attached to the sketch because I've met some cool people due to it! □□
