

Doodle Dump #58

I've been trying to get into the holiday season and binge watch JJBA: Golden wind, so I decided to combine the two!

Here is a sketch of a Christmas/holiday inspired Mista and Giorno! I did this during my Earth Science class, and honestly this is probably one of my more quality Doodle Dumps, like I feel like it could pass as a sketch.

Also don't mind the shadow, I took this pic in my art class and I'm too lazy to take a better one lol.
