

Meet Spike!

Meet Spike!

Spike is actually not a Pound Puppy, but a vintage Pooch Patrol! He protects the pound puppies though, and is made by the same company that produced the vintage Pound Puppies so he can join us.

Spike came all the way from Britain, and I even have his original box! He was a present I received for my 13th birthday! I love my little British boi ♥

(sorry about my sleeve in this pic ☹️)

(angry boi! When you flip Spike's lips up and fold his eyebrows down he becomes ready to attack! ☐)

Tonka

Pooch Patrol™

HUGGABLE FRIEND & FEARLESS PROTECTOR!

SPIKE

Spike is fearless, especially in a storm. He'll do his best to keep you safe and warm.

RASCAL

Rascal has fun being silly like a clown, but when monsters threaten, he's the toughest dog in town.

FLIPPY

Flippy's big ears can hear far miles around, so he goes on guard at the slightest sound.

BENNY

Benny is cute as can be, and when an enemy sneaks around, he'll protect his friends with all his might.

FREE YOU

(his box! my apologizes about the potato lighting, I promise the room was not lit with a potato)
